

NEWSLINE

HEROES

Sunday
13th March
2016

The whole of North School Community would like to thank all the runners for the contribution they have made to Free For All.

They have also shown all the qualities that we want our children to develop whilst at the school:

dedication, determination, desire to help others

& setting personal goals and beating them, time after time after time

March 2016

Special Issue

