School Inspection 31st October 2017 A Halloween to Remember

Ofsted visited the school for the first time since September 2012. Back then, after two days in school, the judgment was that the school was a good school with outstanding behaviour.

The inspection process has changed since then. Now an inspector visits schools previously judged good for one day but may come back for a second day if more evidence is required to confirm that previous judgment or possibly change it.

After one day the inspector, Mrs. Kayembe, informed the governors of her findings. Her judgments must remain confidential until after her work has been quality assured. This make take up to three weeks. Then her report will be shared with the school community.

Mrs. Kayembe has asked that I pass on her gratitude to the children and staff for making her day so enjoyable. The children made a very good impression on Mrs. Kayembe.

I would personally like to thank the parents who shared their views of the school on Parentview. I thought it might be interesting for all parents to see them. Here they are.
