Harrison and Roman Worthy Winners

There were Harry Potters everywhere on Friday 23rd, and many other characters too. Mrs. Marsh (pictured right with Mrs. Jasper and the two winners) had the enviable task of deciding who would receive the books she kindly donated. It was a very tough decision with a great deal of imagination going into the costumes. Can you guess which characters Harriet, Cormac and Roman are? All the children loved playing at lunchtime in their costumes, casting spells with their wands.

Parent Consultation Evening

In between looking at their children's work and meeting their teachers, parents had the chance to speak to governors who were keen to hear their views. It certainly seems that the Visible Learning meeting was well received. What else parents told governors will add to the information currently being gathered through the online parent survey. Please do not miss out on the opportunity to complete the survey. The survey only remains active online for one more week on

HAVE YOU COMPLETED THE ONLINE SURVEY YET? THERE IS STILL TIME. MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD.

Countdown to the Bazaar

Well done and thank you to everybody who donated gifts for the bazaar on the 23rd. Have you sold all your raffle tickets yet? Some parents have sold theirs and collected more from the office. – there are plenty left, do ask.

It would be greatly appreciated if cakes could be brought in on the day itself. Thank you.

Reminder

Unfortunately parents have been upsetting our neighbour SEATRADE again. Car drivers are blocking their car park and/or using their car park. Seatrade are understandably frustrated by this. Worse though is the behaviour of parents who, when asked to move their cars, are rude and aggressive. CCTV captures these encounters and it would be quite within Seatrade's rights to share this footage with the police. Please park responsibly.
