Facts about Morocco:

- Morocco is located in the North-West Corner of Africa
- The Capital city is Rabat
- Our languages include Arabic and Berber dialect. Many people also know French.
- Our national animal is an Atlas Lion. The lions are sadly extinct in the wild but can be found in zoos.

Food:

We have a variety of foods. For example,

Couscous,

fish

or chicken tagines.

Clothes:

Traditional clothes are really important for special days and celebrations.

Landscapes:

We have deserts, coastlines and
vast mountains.
Our most famous mountain are The Atlas Mountains.

My Village

This is the small village where I grew up.

It's called Tizgan.

My house is on the top of the mountain.

We can't drive our car up there so we have to walk

My Village

My school by the shore so our playground was on the beach.

My village

This is a goat that my family gave me to look after when I went last Summer.

My village is important to me because I have my family there.

Thank You
Mrs. El Aimrani for a Lovely assembly.
